Somewhere you can't find me.

Objective

I am applying to be a cheerleading coach for the New York City High School. One may ask, why this job and why should we hire a random man applying? Well, I'm an undercover detective who is apart of the Tune Squad Agency, so basically I can ruin your life in about five seconds if you don't hire me.

Experience

Detective

Whole life

I work as an undercover and sometimes not undercover detective in the City of New York, recently joining the Tune Squad and the agency we provide. You can't know much about my job except that I do what I got to do to get the job done good and well.

Undercover Cheerleader

Recent

As a detective there are a lot of people who would really like to hurt me and get some pay pack because lets be honest, I'm an undercover detective who sometimes does good and sometimes does bad. Oh, and I am very known for tearing families apart, so in order to save myself from the haters I dress up as an undercover cheerleader named Bri in order to get into some places I really shouldn't be.

Education

I did not go to school because I learned everything I needed to know about life and fending for myself through the fact I lived in the city my entire life, leaving me to quite a rough upbringing. I dropped out of school in preschool and never looked back, I can barely read and write, but I rattle off the law for you like no other.

Skills

I am the most skilled when it comes to being the person on a team who brings the entertainment, with my killer ego and amazing looks, who wouldn't want to be me? I am also very skilled at being awkward, finding clues and infecting them, killing bad guys and making the very original chicken parm!!
